What personal data we collect and why we collect it

Comments

When visitors leave comments on the site we collect the data shown in the comments form, and also the visitor's IP address and browser user agent string to help spam detection.

An anonymized string created from your email address (also called a hash) may be provided to the Gravatar service to see if you are using it. The Gravatar service privacy policy is available here: <https://automattic.com/privacy/>. After approval of your comment, your profile picture is visible to the public in the context of your comment.

Media

If you upload images to the website, you should avoid uploading images with embedded location data (EXIF GPS) included. Visitors to the website can download and extract any location data from images on the website.

Cookies

If you leave a comment on our site you may opt-in to saving your name, email address and website in cookies. These are for your convenience so that you do not have to fill in your details again when you leave another comment. These cookies will last for one year.

If you have an account and you log in to this site, we will set a temporary cookie to determine if your browser accepts cookies. This cookie contains no personal data and is discarded when you close your browser.

When you log in, we will also set up several cookies to save your login information and your screen display choices. Login cookies last for two days, and screen options cookies last for a year. If you select "Remember Me", your login will persist for two weeks. If you log out of your account, the login cookies will be removed.

If you edit or publish an article, an additional cookie will be saved in your browser. This cookie includes no personal data and simply indicates the post ID of the article you just edited. It expires after 1 day.

Embedded content from other websites

Articles on this site may include embedded content (e.g. videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from other websites behaves in the exact same way as if the visitor has visited the other website.

These websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed additional third-party tracking, and monitor your interaction with that embedded content, including tracking your interaction with the embedded content if you have an account and are logged in to that website.

Who we share your data with

How long we retain your data

If you leave a comment, the comment and its metadata are retained indefinitely. This is so we can recognize and approve any follow-up comments automatically instead of holding them in a moderation queue.

For users that register on our website (if any), we also store the personal information they provide in their user profile. All users can see, edit, or delete their personal information at any time (except they cannot change their username). Website administrators can also see and edit that information.

What rights you have over your data

If you have an account on this site, or have left comments, you can request to receive an exported file of the personal data we hold about you, including any data you have provided to us. You can also request that we erase any personal data we hold about you. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes.

Where we send your data

We use a GetResponse or MailChimp as our services to gather the information

Visitor comments may be checked through an automated spam detection service.

FTC Affiliate Disclosure

Thank you for visiting GettingActiveToday.com . This page is our FTC affiliate disclosure.

GettingActiveToday.com a website managed by GettingActiveToday.com com earns money in many ways. Let me highlight the ways in which this website earns money:

We may earn money by allowing contact information on personal testimonials. Please assume that all order forms on this site are for our products and earn income for us when you purchase them.

We earn money by participating in affiliate programs. Many of the links on this website (and those in our email newsletter) earn affiliate commissions. What's an affiliate commission? This basically means we earn money when you purchase a product that we link to. When you see links on this blog, please assume they are affiliate links.

This website exists to make money. As you read my website and newsletter, please assume the purpose of the article is generating income for our business. At the same time, we must say that our core goal is to always give useful and valuable information that empowers and educates entrepreneurs.

Earnings Disclaimer

While we make every effort to make sure that we accurately represent all the products and services reviewed on this website and their potential for income, it should be noted that earnings and income statements made by GettingActiveToday.com and its advertisers/sponsors are estimates only of what we think you can possibly earn. There is no guarantee that you will make these levels of income and you accept the risk that the earnings and income statements differ by person.

As with any business, your results may vary and based on your individual capacity, business experience, expertise, and level of desire. There are no guarantees on the level of success you may experience. The testimonials and examples used are exceptional results, which do not apply to the average purchaser and are not intended to represent or guarantee that anyone will achieve the same or similar results. Each individual's success depends on his or her background, dedication, desire and motivation.

There is no assurance that examples of past earnings can be duplicated in the future. We cannot guarantee your future results and/or success. There are some unknown risks in business and on the internet that we cannot foresee which could reduce the results you experience. We are not responsible for your actions.

The use of our information, products, and services should be based on your own due diligence and you agree that GettingActiveToday.com and the advertisers/sponsors of this website are not liable for any success or failure of your business that is directly or indirectly related to the purchase and use of our information, products, and services reviewed or advertised on this website.

Product Disclaimer

Testimonial Disclaimer

These examples are not typical.

Because of the variables associated with defining success in online marketing, it is impossible to accurately state what a person may or may not achieve.

Success is determined on an individual basis and is dependent on a variety of factors including a willingness to take action and carry out ideas based on what is taught, prevailing market conditions, target market selection, and the amount of hard work and effort an individual expends.

Similar to other types of marketing, our typical student should not expect to make any amount of money from the training the Company provides but should expect to receive a great education.

Consequently, the Company does not guarantee success, income, or savings whether explicit or implied and past customer testimonials are only examples of what can be obtained. There are risks associated with this education, and past results do not represent an indication of future success or earnings.

Persons depicted in testimonials have declared the information shared is true and correct.

The written, audio and visual presentations offered may have been edited from their original versions. Some personal and private information has been removed to protect client and consultant privacy.
